

SAFER INTERNET DAY 2020 – ‘Together for a better internet’.

Exciting news! On Tuesday 11th February, we will be celebrating Safer Internet Day by inviting Amy Bradley into our school. Amy Bradley is the Staffordshire-based illustrator of number one best-selling children’s online safety themed book PENGUINPIG and also MONKEYCOW – written by our very own Mr Spendlow.

Amy will be working with children from EYFS up to Year 4 in order to create illustrations for their own internet-safety themed book, and Mr Spendlow will be working with children in Year 5 and Year 6 to create their own stories for younger children.

Mr Spendlow and Amy will happily sign any copies of their books if children bring them into school on the day. Copies are available from Amazon, book shops or www.penguinpig.co.uk. Orders placed before 6pm on Sunday evening should make it on time for the day.

Teaching our children how to stay safe online is a huge priority, especially in our ever-evolving digital way of life. We hope that this day will be really exciting for children as well as reinforcing some key online safety messages.

Please also take the time to read the important advice and information in the attached ‘Staying Safe Online’ leaflet produced by the Lincolnshire Safeguarding Children Partnership (LSCB).
