Candlelit Christmas Service Today & Christmas Jumper Day Tomorrow

Dear Parents and Carers,

This is just a quick reminder that our Candlelit Christmas at Grimoldby service will be taking place today, starting at 2.30pm.

As you already know, we are unable to use the church this year and had hoped to hold our service on the playground. Unfortunately, due to the forecast of gusty winds and heavy rain, we will now be holding the service in our school hall instead.

Parents and carers are, of course, very welcome to attend. However, please be aware that our hall is small and even smaller than the church, so space will be limited. There will be only a very small number of chairs available, and most parents will need to stand. We really do appreciate your understanding and flexibility.

Please enter the school through the nursery gate and then into the EYFS outdoor area where you will find the doors to the back of the hall. The nursery gate will open at 2.10pm and close at 2.25pm ready for the service. In the hall, volunteers from FrOGS will be serving festive refreshments for parents.

We would also like to remind you that tomorrow, as we celebrate the last day of term before the Christmas holidays, children are welcome to wear a Christmas jumper instead of their school jumper. We also have some exciting surprises for all the children as part of our Christmas celebrations.

Thank you, as always, for your continued support and dedication to our school. We truly appreciate it and look forward to sharing this special Christmas moment with you.

Yours Faithfully,

Antonia Coy
