

Tuesday 19th December 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

Tomorrow is our Church Service at 2pm in St Edith's Church. Parents are welcome to come along but there will be no seats available, unfortunately. So, if you're happy to wrap up warm and stand, do come along and join us for a short service telling the Nativity story and singing some Christmas songs.

We'd like to say a big 'thank you' to the wonderful volunteers at FrOGS for organising their events this year (Christmas Bingo was a great success!) and thank you to all of you who supported us with these. With the money raised, our school can continue to have new equipment, experiences and resources. Remember, if you can donate any time to helping out at FrOGS events – or if you'd like to join the committee – speak to Amanda Johnson or Debbie O'Connor (their faces are on the yellow poster in the Year 6 window)!

We would also like to thank one of our parents, Emma Jacklin, who, once again, brought buckets of Christmas spirit along and helped to make last Friday an incredibly exciting day thanks to two mischievous elves, a lot of glitter and a lot of sweets! It was such a fabulous and memorable day for all the children (and the staff too)!

Finally, I would like to thank our dedicated and inspirational staff team here at Grimoldby Primary School for everything they do for our children and our community. I am, as always, very proud to be headteacher of our school, and all of the staff here would like to wish you and your families a very lovely, restful and well-deserved Christmas break.

The new term begins (and our School Office will reopen) on Wednesday 3rd January and we look forward to seeing you all then. Please remember that our school website has links to resources to support wellbeing and safeguarding/online safety which can be accessed over the break should you need it - <https://www.grimoldbyprimaryschool.co.uk>.

Thank you for your continued support and I look forward to seeing you all in 2024.

Yours faithfully,

Antonia Brooks
Headteacher
